Announcement

Changes in Principal Appointments

The School District is pleased to announce changes in principal appointments effective August 1, 2018.

Christin Blair has accepted a middle school vice principal position with School District No. 33 (Chilliwack). The new vice-principal for the Prince Rupert Middle School will be Peter Scott. Peter has been with the district for two years as the vice principal of École Roosevelt Park Community School. Peter will continue to hold a district role in Applied Design, Skills and Technology.

School District 52 welcomes James Zlatanov to his new role of vice principal of École Roosevelt Park Community School. James joined the district in 2014 as a Teacher Teaching on Call. He has taught at Prince Rupert Middle School, as a District Helping Teacher and, most recently, as the Aboriginal Education Department Middle and Secondary Helping Teacher.

Kevin Leach will return full time as vice principal to Charles Hays Secondary School. Kerri Levelton, principal of Conrad Street Elementary School will take on an additional role as principal of Port Edward Community School.

Paramjit Khaira will expand his support for district information technology in a new, part-time role of Vice Principal of Innovation and Technology. Jit will maintain his duties as vice principal of Conrad Street Elementary School.

"The district is very grateful to Christin for her contributions to Prince Rupert Middle School and we wish her the best of luck with her new district," said Superintendent Ken Minette. "We congratulate Peter, James, Kerri and Jit on their new appointments and look forward to their continued contributions to improve the success of students in the district."
